Dear Leadership of East Tennessee,

I am happy to announce that the Anti-Racism Commission of our diocese is offering a viewing of "Traces of the Trade" and an Anti-Racism Training this fall at St. Paul's Church, in Chattanooga. The viewing of "Traces of the Trade" will be held on Friday evening, November 20th, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Dain and Constance Perry will be with us to discuss this important documentary. Dain is a descendant of the DeWolf family, which played a leading role in the slave trade in this country.

The anti-racism training will be held on Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at St. Paul's. It will be led by members of our Commission and trainers from the Diocese of Atlanta. The dress is casual. Lunch will be provided at the training.

To register, please fill out the enclosed form and return it to me, the Rev. Canon Stephen Askew. Do let me know if you have any questions.

God's peace to you,
